

Cal Code Civ Proc § 1775.1 (2007)

§ 1775.1. "Mediation"; Acts performed by counsel

(a) As used in this title, "mediation" means a process in which a neutral person or persons facilitate communication between the disputants to assist them in reaching a mutually acceptable agreement.

(b) Unless otherwise specified in this title or ordered by the court, any act to be performed by a party may also be performed by his or her counsel of record.